February 20, 2026: On Learning From a Tragedy

Since this is all exposed and open for discussion, I am looking forward to reading more about the 'warning signs', 'types' of abuse, and other areas of concern that people can look for in their own lives. As many of us (normal, God-fearing, people) have never even imagined the types of harm and abuse that these demons administered daily, it is an opportunity to share more about what it looked like to survive the abuse of Baalism (father worship).

בֵּל	Bêl	bale	H1078	By contraction for H1168; Bel, the Baal of the Babylonians
בַּעַל	Ba'al	bah'-al	H1168	The same as H1167; Baal, a Phœnician deity: Baal [plural] Baalim.
בַּעַל	ba'al	bah'-al	H1167	from H1166; a master hence a husband, or figuratively owner (ADDITION: master archer, master babbler, master bird, master captain, master chief man, master confederate, master have to do, master dreamer, master those to whom it is due, master furious, master those that are given to fury, hairy, master he that has hair, master horseman, master husband, master lord, master man, master married, master, person, master they that are sworn)

After learning more about the excessiveness of the dominations, then we will all be able to see more of the abuse in our own daily lives - and rightfully reject it. With knowledge, comes power.

"Epstein Told Me His Darkest Secrets": Survivor Recalls Once-Silenced Horror To NDTV

Rina Oh, who was 21 at the time, told NDTV that Jeffrey Epstein "psychologically harmed" her by insulting and criticising her body.

"He psychologically harmed me by devaluing me after saying great things about me for a while. It took many, many months down the road. He started with insults. Criticising my body. Telling me what to do with my body. And then I think the time when I heard him, and he said this more than once, he started telling me I was too old. A lot. I was 21. And he was 47 at the time. So you could just imagine a 21-year-old being told that she's too old," Oh said.

According to the survivor, she ended up having "long-lasting damage" as a result of the constant abuse.

"From an early age, when I was five or six years old, I was abused by an adult, and I was naturally a very silent person. And I didn't realise it was abuse because I didn't even know when I was younger. And it was very easy to manipulate me. I was already very damaged. Jeffrey saw that, and he took advantage of me," Oh said.

(As I continue my research now at 1:02 a.m., there is a very discomforting acoustic agitations being forced into my home from an unknown source. A low rumbling, a vehicle idling, and more. It is difficult to determine exactly what is making the noise, but it is increasingly uncomfortable for me to think and compile my research to make my points.)

This is exactly why I am unable to bring a lawsuit against Donald Trump, Elon Musk, and the United States government at this time. Their team is literally spying on my work in real time and, aside from stealing my behind-the-scenes work-product and preparation, are also making my life unbearable when I attempt to produce work of material consequence.

Anyway, here are some of the articles that I was researching at the time. Now, back to Donald Trump and his never-ending abusive voice of demonism.

(Seriously, the satan has captured Donald Trump by the toe and won't let him go. Donald's brain and body have been given over to some other force now - it is inhuman and unholy.)

'Uncle Jeffrey': Top Goldman Lawyer Features in Epstein Docs

That's what she called the convicted sex offender in a 2016 email about a meeting, in an October 2018 note about a "lovely and thoughtful" gift and in another message in 2019: "Am totally tricked out by Uncle Jeffrey today! Jeffrey boots, handbag, and w=tch!"

(Women, you should stigmatize these inclinations)

On Halloween in 2018, after she told him that she'd contacted the chair of her law firm about a financial matter, Epstein wrote back: "good girl." The next year, he was charged with sex trafficking minors, and he died in prison soon after.

Goldman Lawyer, Epstein Conferred on Secret Service Prostitution Scandal

In a series of 2014 emails, the wealthy financier gave advice to the former White House counsel as the Colombian incident blew up.

FLASHBACK TO SEPTEMBER 03, 2024 (2024!!!): SECRET SERVICE HAS TOO MANY SECRETS!

US Secret Service Cartagena scandal 'involved 20 women'

HOTEL CAR-I-BE IN CART-A-GENA?

IS THE SECRET SERVICE REALLY BEHIND IT ALL? IS GEORGE'S SECRET PASSWORD REALLY 'BOSCO'?

The US Secret Service prostitution scandal involved as many as 20 women, 11 American agents and some military personnel, senior US officials say.

FLASHBACK TO DECEMBER 01, 2024 (2024!!!):

Chris Carlin 11:39 PM (2 minutes ago)
to ISP.WebComs, me

I am continuing to write to this address to complain about employee misconduct arising from within the Secret Service.

There is a continuous monitoring taking place inside of my home and a relay of that information into the houses that are around mine.

This information is being used to 'coordinate' the movements of people in the area around me as a means of intimidation and capture.

I am being held in a 'catch and kill' scenario by political forces that are near Donald Trump.

I am being held within a bubble of 'false imprisonment' where criminals are swarming around my wife and I as we move through our city, the nation, and the world.

This is a problem that is traveling with us all the way to Spain! Our hotel rooms have been tampered, our home has been entered, and our vehicles are being manipulated as well.

The scope of this problem is of such a grand design and scheme that only Donald Trump and the United States Secret Service could possibly be carrying it forward.

I am writing to this email continuously now, over an extended period, to evidence the ongoing nature of this problem.

As an attorney, I am aware that all of my behaviors, communications, and movements are being monitored - in real time - and are being commented upon by a gang of people both federal employees and non-employee criminals. In this 'open-air' environment where even my own bedroom is being monitored and shared to criminals, I am unable to practice my profession.

The technology of the United States is being used to carry out political hits and to hold people, at least my wife and I, captive!
We are being systematically destroyed to appease a criminal politician. We are leaving the country to warn the world of the dangers.

Please work to find a solution to this very serious and ongoing terrorism being carried on in the name and form of the United States government - for a convicted felon like Donald John Trump.

(Cars are driving around my home at a rate that exceeds description. Every movement inside of my home and every piece of work I do on my computer is being accented by vehicle sounds, exhausts, engines, and general noise pollution - to threaten us into silence and literally kill us with a 'soft touch' (the exhausts of powerful engines are 'drilling' into our bodies constantly to threaten us - this is a very serious problem that must be addressed for the safety of the community and world.)
